VF Law, a full-service law firm headquartered in Lake Oswego, Oregon, is pleased to announce the opening of its newest office in Treasure Valley, Idaho. With offices across seven states, the firm serves businesses and community associations with litigation, real estate & land use, construction law and defects, insurance defense, business and corporate law, estate planning, and family legal services. VF Law has been providing counsel to clients in the Idaho area for 15 years from other firm locations. The new office is located at 660 E. Franklin Road, Meridian, ID.

"Expanding the firm into Idaho makes perfect sense given our legal specialization, clientele, and focus on assisting the local community," said T. Beau Ellis, Managing Partner of the firm. "The firm has provided legal service to clients in Idaho, but increased demand cemented the decision to open a physical location in Treasure Valley. Attorney Brittaney Bones will lead the firm's Idaho office, and we look forward to providing high-quality legal services to new clients."

VF Law has cultivated a team of talented and dedicated legal professionals who provide a high level of legal expertise and deeply care about sustaining local communities. Fostering a culture that strives to develop meaningful relationships with clients and provide them with comprehensive legal services is a priority that all members of the team share. The new Idaho office will allow the firm to extend its reach and support its growing client base in the region.

"As an Idaho native, I'm excited to return to my hometown and focus my legal practice primarily on the Idaho market, serving community association and planned communities," said Bones. "I look forward to working with my colleagues to grow this market and give back to the community, including participating on the Idaho CAI Legislative Action Committee (LAC). I'm confident the new office will provide exceptional service to clients and positively impact the community."
