VF Law is pleased to welcome Dax R. Watson as Of Counsel to its Phoenix office. With over two decades of legal experience, Watson focuses his practice on commercial litigation and real estate law.

“Our firm is dedicated to providing high-quality legal services to our clients. We are pleased to continue our growth in Phoenix by welcoming Dax to our team,” said T. Beau Ellis, Managing Partner at VF Law. “His background in real estate law, commercial litigation and professional liability defense will be instrumental in driving the growth and success of our Arizona office. Dax’s commitment to client service and thoughtful, hands-on approach to his work aligns with our firm’s values, and we are confident that he will make significant contributions to our team.”

Prior to joining VF Law, Watson most recently served as General Counsel for a real estate brokerage company, where he oversaw all legal activities for the multi-state real estate brokerage, managing both litigation and transactional matters. His transactional practice included entity formation, regulatory compliance, and drafting various business-related agreements. His General Counsel experience followed decades of private litigation practice representing real estate professionals throughout Arizona.

“I’m honored to join VF Law and work with the talented team in Phoenix,” said Dax R. Watson. “VF Law’s reputation for providing unparalleled legal services and its commitment to client advocacy are what drew me to the firm. I look forward to serving my clients and contributing to the continued growth and success of the firm.”

Watson’s hiring underscores VF Law’s strategic focus on expanding its presence in Arizona and enhancing its capabilities to serve clients in the region. He received his law degree from Arizona State University College of Law.
